

The QRRRWN Barambah Branch Bursary

2020 Bursary

The Barambah Network of the Queensland Rural, Regional and Remote Women's Network (QRRRWN) are offering their annual bursary to provide support for women of the South Burnett Region who are looking to further their personal or business development.

The successful applicant will receive support of $1000 towards training of their choice.

To be eligible to apply for this bursary, you must be:

- A female resident of the South Burnett Region
- Over 30 years of age
- Seeking financial assistance to gain additional skills via training and personal or business development within the next 12 months
- Submit this application form before 30 November 2019

The successful applicant will be required to report, in person, to the QRRRWN Barambah Branch on their progress and use of the bursary within ten months of receiving the bursary.
